CLASSES

Second period algebra class finding unknowns.

Working with complex fractions.

Constructing a geometric design.

Plane geometry class works with triangles.

Mathemtics

Algebra must be looked at and understood as a language. The ability to use a rich and an exact language is one of the highest attainments of culture and one of the most desirable attributes of an educated mind. As a language algebra is a highly condensed language. It is a language stripped down to essentials where all extraneous matters are absent.

"The laws of nature are but Mathematical thoughts of God."

Digging for themselves.

Seniors writing on research themes.

Juniors studying American Literature.

English

The Junior and Senior English subjects are enjoying an integrated program of literature, composition, and grammar. Although this is the first year of the program, the students find that it provides interest and variety in class work.

The Reader's Digest is used in Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes to increase competence in reading and spelling. Freshmen use the Practical English magazine for speed reading and comprehension.

Sophomores silently reading Literature.

Commercial

Second period typing class.

Bookkeeping Class

Physics class studies 4-cylinder engine.

Chemistry class makes hydrogen chloride.

Biology class examines "Herman."

Science

With the launching of the first space satellite, October 7, 1957, the space age came into being. We must equip ourselves with all the science knowledge we can if we are to live in the future world.

Interest in science is being increased in Shamrock High School with the planning of a science fair this year. Students will be given an opportunity to participate in several categories of science.

Physics class demonstrates coefficient of expansion.

General Science class studies flame.

The Six Winter Rules..... The nine things you look for while driving..... The chart of total traffic deaths during a 24 hour period.

Five "right-of-way" rules

Five important road signs

Driver's Education

High school courses can provide the most favorable opportunity for youths to acquire the knowledge, skills, and attitudes needed for safe driving. The instruction set-up of greatest promise is a two-part drivers education course. Around such a practical two-part system, "Sportmanlike Driving" course is built.

It is made up of:

- 1. Classroom teaching
- 2. Supervised road practice.

Both parts of the course are regularly scheduled in school curriculum.

In classroom work youth drivers learn:
What makes the good driver.
Traffic laws and the reasons for them.
The serious personal and social responsibilities of driving.
The elementary principles of how a car

How to keep the car in good condition.

How to protect and to be good pedestrians.

Stopping distances at various speeds.

Vocational possibilities in driving.

The Latin class reads about the "Harpies."

The famous "vocabulary line."

Latin II students read stories on different phases of the culture of the Greek and Roman nations. A great deal of reference reading is done to provide background for studying languages and to appreciate our debt to these famous people. Emphasis placed on a thorough understanding of syntax and vocabulary. In the second semester the class translates Caesar's Gallic Wars. Research is done on Caesar's life and all aspects of history related to this story.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

The Spanish I class tries to master a reading and speaking vocabulary and to learn the basic grammatical forms. Cultural material is studied both from the historical and the modern viewpoint. The importance of friendly relations with our neighbors of this hemisphere is emphasized.

Our crown performance "Siempre Una Vaca."

We won't forget Mary Kay.

The officers of the Library Club: President--June Griffen; Secretary-Treasurer--Margie Sanderson; Reporter--Carolyn Barcafar.

The Library Club members.

Library and Study Hall

The library is shelved with many good and interesting books, such as Fiction, Biography, History, etc. There is a verticle file, a shelf file, a card catalogue, and a complete section of reference books. The library is being improved more every year.

Study Hall is an hour period set aside in every student's schedule for their benefit, to use for getting their outside work and class assignments.

Studying in Study Hall.

Making use of the periodicals.

P.E. girls build a pyramid.

Girls get set to do "front-rows."

P.E. Class

The girls' P.E. class meets the fifth period; the boys' class, the second period. In these classes the students learn the fundamentals of many different games. Emphasis is placed upon developing body skills, such as: agility, balance, and reaction. This year the girls were introduced to elementary tumbling for the first time, The boys have been working on individual skills in tumbling and acrobatics.

SENIOR PLAY

February 27, 1959

Mrs. Neece...Director Kenneth Rascoe..Asst. Dir. Cheramy Tisdal Make-up

Tommy, a schoolboy, thinks he is a writer. He writes a story with the same title as the one his Pulitzer-Prize winning uncle. His uncle comes to visit and has his mail sent there.

Two weeks later a letter comes and has a $500 check in it. Tommy thinks it's his because his uncle and he have the same name. Tommy throws a big party and finds out too late that the money isn't his.

His girl friend gets him out of the jam and everything ends well.

FTA

The FTA consists of students who desire to become teachers. At the end of the year all students who have met all requirements receive pins. FTA has high membership requirements which it strives to maintain. Many useful projects are carried on by the club. We have twenty-eight members, most have been members for two or three years.

Installation of Officers

F TA Members

In an impressive installation, the officers of the FTA for the school year 1958-159 were installed.

Mrs. Oneta Barrett, president of the local classroom teacher's organization, was the installing officer. She gave a very impressive talk on "The Enjoyment of Teaching."
